Sanora F. Smaller currently serves at the Air Force Special Operations Command Culture and Diversity Specialist. She is responsible for developing and implementing AFSOC's strategic vision for institutionalizing diversity and inclusion. Currently, Ms Smaller is working to organize AFSOC's first women's leadership symposium in the fall 2020.

Ms Smaller is a retired financial manager. She serviced in numerous positions during her nearly 25 year active duty tenure to include Comptroller Squadron Commander and Executive officer to the Comptroller, Air Mobility Command. She also deployed to Kandahar Air Base, Afghanistan in 2007. Her final Air Force assignment was in Air Force Special Operations Command, Financial Management Directorate where she served as Chief, Financial Analysis Division. Ms Smaller retired from the Air Force in 2014 but has remained active on Hurlburt Field serving Airmen. Ms Smaller is married to Darryl and they have a blended family of four young adults and two handsome dogs.