

Financial Partnerships That Work

SYNOPSIS:

Jonathan Witter, Director, Defense Finance and Accounting Service Columbus

As Director, DFAS Columbus, Mr. Jonathan Witter oversees a workforce supporting us daily. He speaks on financial partnerships from a position of a experience -- the relationship and partnership between DFAS and the military services a key piece of financial execution success for us all. He will share successful examples where DFAS and its customer have accomplished better financial stewardship by working together on issues such as audit readiness, Lean 6 projects and operational improvements. From these examples, he will extract key principles for cultivating synergistic partnerships across governmental organizations - principles you can take back and use in your every day working relationships and organization!
