

Roles and Responsibilities of the Contracting Officer in Regard to Government Property provided to Defense contractors.

SYNOPSIS:

Doug Goetz, DAU Professor of Contract and Property Management Department of Contract Management

Have you ever wondered how to handle acquisition or contract efforts that involve government furnished equipment? Projects which include GFE have unique problems which must be given special attention. You really need to pay attention to details and specify thoroughly the contractor's responsibility for GFE. Join us to learn some of those tips and tricks, lessons learned and become a better contracting officer, acquisition manager, financial manager or cost estimator when it comes to GFE.