

The Opportunity in Front of You

SYNOPSIS:

Mr. Dave Weinberg and Col Chip Fulghum

The Opportunity in Front of You - journey of one senior leader, frank conversation of the mistakes made, the lessons learned and based on those lessons and experiences the keys to success for each person.

Individuals will walk away with keys to developing people, building trust and cultivating relationships, communicating more effectively and learning how to make things better in your organization! Individuals will walk away motivated to make a difference in their organization each and every day.

This workshop is both humorous and entertaining while getting a very important message across...don't waste the opportunity you have to make a difference.