

ASMC Luncheon 14 April 2009

Leah Hodge, Programs Co-Chair, opened the meeting (11:25) by introducing our guest speakers, Ms Deb Gable and Mr Jerry Tebo.

Ms Gable works for DCMA, the Defense Contract Management Agency and she is the Customer Liaison to AAC. DCMA provides contract administration services to the DOD Acquisition Enterprise. They fall under the USD(AT&L), the Undersecretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics. DCMA was formerly organized geographically, but is now organized by products. Eglin falls under the Space & Missile Systems Division.

For more information, see www.dcmamil, or <http://home.dcmamil>. Deb's email is deborah.gable@eglin.af.mil.

Mr Tebo works for DCAA, the Defense Contract Audit Agency as a Financial Liaison Advisor. Formerly, each service had its own contract audit function but in 1965, all were merged into DCAA. They provide accounting and financial advisory services regarding contracts and subcontracts for all DOD components. DCAA provides pre-award and post-award audit services.

For more information, see www.dcaamil. DCAA Publications and audit guidance links are on the main page. Jerry's email is jerome.tebo@eglin.af.mil.

Capt Dan Genest, President, presented Ms Gable and Mr Tebo certificates of a donation to a charity in both their names and announced both sets of slides would be on the Gulf Coast Chapter website.

Capt Genest reminded everyone to vote for the 2009-10 officers by email. He announced Laura Gamble had completed the Blankets of Hope from the RPDS and would be mailing them soon. Finally, he announced Gulf Coast would have three items for the fundraiser/raffle at this year's National PDI: an iPod Touch, a Visa gift card, and an Air Force blanket.

Meeting Adjourned 1215.

Record by: Laura Gamble