

Contractor's Perspective of Government Contracting

This class will focus on how contractors work with the Government and the SBA as well as successes and challenges when operating with the government to effectively execute their contracts.