

Small Business Perspective

PTAC—What on earth is that?” Explaining the Procurement Technical Assistance Center Program history (briefly), services we offer, how and where we provide these services to businesses and advantages to the government personnel for us to provide these services. This presentation will also include the perspective from a local small business and answer questions. The small business owner meets all five of the federal goals and all five of the goals for PTAC (same as federal goals).