

"Perfectly Off-Center: Why our Decisions Defy Economics"

Join us for a fun and interactive exploration of several prevalent biases which probably affect your decision making. We will identify, describe, and evaluate the implications of economically inconsistent or inefficient decisions many of us fall victim to, and provide some remedies and tools to assist in your critical thinking processes.