

Chief Warrant Officer (Retired) Perry Alliman entered the U.S. Army in 1980. He served as an air traffic controller at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, Fulda Germany, and Fort Rucker, Alabama. Mr. Alliman attended the Warrant Officer Candidate Course in 1991, followed by Aviation Flight Training. He has served as an Army Aviator and Safety Officer in various locations around the world. His assignments include 9-101st, Airborne Division, Fort Campbell, KY; 421st Medical Evacuation Battalion, Wiesbaden Germany; 1-145th Aviation Regiment, Fort Rucker, AL; 5/158th Aviation Battalion, Giebelstadt Germany; 12th Aviation Brigade, Giebelstadt Germany.

Mr. Alliman served on active duty for 25 years and then as an Army Civilian for eleven years managing the Aviation Safety Officer Course at the U.S. Army Combat Readiness Center. He now serves with The Navigators as a Missionary to the Fort Rucker military community. His awards include; Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Purple Heart, Army Commendation Medal, and various other awards.

Mr. Alliman is married to the former Debbie A. Bobe from Brooklyn, NY and they have three children and two beautiful granddaughters.