

Sandra A. Gregory, CDFM

Ms. Gregory is the Special Assistant to the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller)/Chief Financial Officer. In this capacity she heads the Office of Financial Workforce Management and leads special studies and directs projects related to financial management. She was instrumental in standing up the Chief Financial Officer Academy, DoD Audit Advisory Committee, Defense Contract Audit Agency Oversight Committee, and worked closely with the Defense Business Board's Defense Contract Audit Agency Independent Review Panel. Her Financial Workforce Management Team launched the new CAC-enabled DoD FM Online and FM myLearn websites:

<https://fmonline.ousdc.osd.mil>. She helps identify unique financial challenges and proposes solutions and conducts evaluations of DoD-wide issues to support management decision making, to include the Strategic Human Capital Management

Program. Her team is leading the effort to create a DoD Financial Management Certification Program which was created in the Fiscal Year 2012 National Defense Authorization Act. She is the Department's Functional Community Manager for the 48,000 civilians and 10,000 military in DoD Financial Management.

Prior to returning to DoD, Ms. Gregory was Vice President for Financial and Cost Management at CALIBRE in Alexandria, Virginia, where she was responsible for a $10 million business unit.

In her capacity as a military officer, her last assignment was as the Deputy Director of Budget Operations and Personnel, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Financial Management and Comptroller, Washington, D.C. She was responsible for planning, formulating and directing the execution of the Air Force operations and maintenance, and military personnel annual budgets totaling more than $60 billion for ensuring Air Force readiness. In her 29 years of active duty military service she served in a variety of financial management positions throughout DoD, to include wing, major command, Headquarters U.S. Air Force, and Joint Chiefs of Staff levels. Ms. Gregory also taught at the DoD Professional Military Comptroller School and is a Certified Defense Financial Manager. She retired as a brigadier general in the United States Air Force in November 2006.

Ms. Gregory received her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Wisconsin-Superior where she graduated as a distinguished graduate of Air Force ROTC. She has an MBA from Sul Ross State University and a Master's of Science in National Resource Strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. She also completed MIT's Seminar XXI and Air Command and Staff College in residence. In May 2008, she was awarded an Honorary Doctorate from the University of Wisconsin – Superior.

She has served on several Boards of Directors to include the Army and Air Force Exchange Service; Armed Forces Benefit Association (AFBA) 5-Star Bank; AFBA's Investment Management Company; the American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC) National Board; the University of Wisconsin – Superior's Foundation; and the Border Credit Union. She currently serves as a Board member for the Air Force Aid Society.